Easter Sunday – “Come & See”

Easter Sunday always brings more people to church than almost any other Sunday. So, it's a great opportunity for us to invite more people as they seem more open to coming to church than at other times.

This Easter, we are offering two worship times, 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. In between those worship times, we are going to forego our Sunday School hour for a time to connect with one another and our guests over coffee and a continental breakfast at 10:15 a.m. Let's use this time to make a personal connection with our guests and our members we don't often see. Our goal is to help them want to become a follower of Christ and worship and fellowship with His people.

Our Easter Sunday theme is “Come & See,” which is what the angel told the women gathered at the tomb after Jesus had risen. “Come and See” is an invitation to come and investigate for yourself the claims of who Jesus is and what He has done for us.

We have prepared attractive, full-color invite cards for you to use to invite others to worship and connect with us this Easter Sunday. We ask you to take several and invite people who do not go to church anywhere else. Many will come, if you and I will simply invite them. A personal invitation is still the number one reason people visit a church.

“Come & See” Easter Sunday Schedule

9:00 a.m. – Come & Worship (in worship center)

10:15 a.m. – Come & Connect (continental breakfast in fellowship hall)

11:00 a.m. – Come & Worship (in worship center)
